

Master's Programs in International Business and Trade

Global Trade Leader Scholarships

A student-led corporate co-funded talent development initiative

Empower your future in global trade

Are you passionate about global business and trade? Are you ready to accelerate your career with a world-class master's program?

This scholarship will help you earn a specialized business education, develop corporate connections and join a worldwide network of trade leaders. For scholarship details, visit the Hinrich Foundation Guide to Master's Programs in International Business and Trade.

Receive up to US$25,000 in co-funded tuition scholarships

The Hinrich Foundation will provide a scholarship of up to US$25,000 when matched by up to US$25,000 from a student-secured corporate sponsor.

Study at a leading global institution

Two scholarships are available for study at each of these top master's programs featured in the Hinrich Foundation Guide:

Cranfield School of Management, MBA

INSEAD Singapore campus, MBA

National University of Singapore, MBA

Thunderbird School of Global Management, Master's of Global Management

Develop corporate connections for your career success

Kickstart your career by engaging with industry leaders from day one when you approach corporations for sponsorship. They will value your initiative to seek their support to build your global trade career. It may be the start of a long-term relationship.

Expand your professional network globally

All graduates of this scholarship program will become members of the Hinrich Foundation Alumni Association. Members have exclusive access to lifelong professional development support and networking with fellow global trade leaders worldwide.

Scholarship requirements overview

Scholarships are open to prospective students who:

- Secure tuition co-funding from qualified corporate sponsor(s)
- Are admitted to one of the Hinrich Foundation Guide selected programs
- Are awarded a scholarship by the Hinrich Foundation Scholarship Committee
- Commence studies at the selected program

Scholarships will be awarded on a first-come, first-served basis.

Start your trade journey now!

For scholarship details and program profiles, visit the Hinrich Foundation Guide today.

